CHRISTMAS LETTERS & SONGS

WITH STAN CLARDY, MUSICIAN & STORYTELLER

"This is Christmas, and my mind wanders back to that home made lonesome by my absence, while far away from the peace and quietude of civil life to undergo the hardships of the camp, and may be the battle field. I think of the many lives that are endangered, and hope that the time will soon come when peace, with its innumerable blessings, shall once more restore our country to happiness and prosperity."

~Corporal J. C. Williams, Co. B, 14th Vermont Infantry, December 25, 1862~
